THE BUSINESS WORLD.

A Big Purchase of Cotton at Denton—Shipments to be Made Direct to Liverpool.

The Week's Failures Show Collapses to be More Numerous in the South than Usual.

A GIANT DENTON ENTERPRISE.

DENTON, TEX., Oct. 3.—In to-day's Dallas Herald the Fort Worth correspondent of that paper mistakes the facts in regard to the Decatur cotton, which has been sold here yesterday and to-day. The cotton was purchased by Denton men and paid for with Denton money, and was wholly a Denton enterprise. The cotton will be shipped direct to Liverpool. The cotton was offered to the giant merchants of Fort Worth, who did not have the nerve to pay the price which was paid by the Denton merchants. No ill will is borne to any other town or city by our people and it is hardly fair that the above correspondent of the Herald should warp the facts into a seeming animosity between the two largest cities of North Texas.

The Wise county farmers were well satisfied and have all returned home. A meeting was held by this alliance last night at which many citizens of this place and members of the alliance made speeches after which the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, that we extend our thanks to the members of the Farmers' alliance of Wise county and other farmers of that county who were unable to dispose of their cotton at a fair price in Decatur, and

Resolved, that we extend our thanks to the members of the Farmers' alliance of Dallas or Gainesville, and as we have been able to sell our cotton in Denton at a larger figure than we were offered for the same at any other city, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we return our sincere thanks to all the citizens of Denton for their very kind hospitality.

Resolved, that we, as a body, return our warmest thanks to Messrs. White & McGlasson, who bought our cotton, and to Mayor Poe and Mr. John McNeil, who visited our camp at Decatur, and through whose aid we were able to effect a sale, also

Resolved, that we return our thanks to the hotel and restaurants of Denton, who extended us favors, also

Resolved, that we extend our thanks to the Denton newspapers for kindly attentions, also

Resolved, that we give our sincere thanks to Thomas Jackson, the weigher of our cotton, and to our own committee who assisted and to others who assisted at the weighing, which we think was uniformly just and accurate in every respect; that we think the cotton buyers of Denton have fulfilled the contract to the letter, also

Resolved, that we extend the hope for the future prosperity of Denton and her citizens, who by their enterprise have taught other towns in Texas a lesson.

Resolved, that the newspapers of Denton be requested to publish these resolutions.

A. C. RUSSELL, Chm'r.

The above resolutions were read and adopted by a rising vote.

M. W. Prescott of Wise made an appropriate speech defending the action of the farmers in organizing for self protection. Mr. McGlasson, Dr. F. M. Faught and Judge J. A. Carroll of Denton and M. E. Rhodes and L. S. Adair of Wise each made interesting speeches, which were greeted with rounds of applause.

On motion a vote of thanks was extended to Judge Austin for the use of the court-house, and to Mayor Poe and other citizens for courtesies extended. Adjourned.

M. E. RHODES, Chairman, D. N. DODSON, Secretary.

A BONANZA DAY IN COTTON.

DENTON, TEX., Oct. 2.—The city has been very much crowded to-day and the merchants have generally done a large business. The Farmer's alliance of Wise county have been bringing cotton in since 4 o'clock this morning and at 6 o'clock p. m., there was yet more to come. This cotton was bought by White & McGlasson at a uniform price of nine cents per pound and it is to the credit of our city and the above named firm that Decatur, Gainesville, Fort Worth, and Dallas were all bidding on this cotton. Denton comes to the scratch with better prices than any of our big sisters and has captured the prize. The price will hold good until 10 o'clock a. m. to-morrow, by which time it is expected all of this special lot of cotton will have been received, making a total of something near one thousand bales. Between twenty-two and twenty-five thousand dollars have been paid out to-day by our bankers account of the fleecy staple. The usual amount of local cotton has been received in addition to the above to-day. All of the Farmers' alliance remaining in the city to-night were furnished a free supper at the expense of our citizens.

THE WEEK'S FAILURES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The failures for the last seven days for the United States were 194, and for Canada 23, a total of 217 as against 213 last week. Failures are more numerous than usual in the Southern states and lighter in New York city.

FREIGHT AND PASSENGER RATES.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 3.—The local freight agents of the east-bound lines at a meeting to-day decided to restore the full tariff rates to the seaboard on the basis of 25 cents on grain and 20 cents on provisions to New York.

The war on marine passenger rates will continue without much bitterness between the lines.

The closing rate quoted to-day over the counters to all Missouri river points between Omaha and Kansas City was $5.50. It is expected that it will go lower to-morrow.

THE TOLEDO, CINCINNATI & ST. LOUIS RAILWAY.

ST. LOUIS, MO., Oct. 3.—Receiver Craig, Superintendent Murray of the Toledo, Cincinnati & St. Louis narrow-gauge railway, and several bondholders arrived here yesterday, having made a trip over the road for the purpose of thoroughly determining the question of reorganization. Mr. Bondholders, one of the New York bondholders, stated to-night that there is no doubt but that what is known as the Quikley plan will soon be carried out, and that it will not be long before another standard-gauge road, managed by business men, will be operated between St. Louis and Toledo. The plan, as stated, is as follows: The property to be purchased for account of the bondholders and the payment to be made in the bonds of the line. They will change the gauge and equip the road. The money is to be obtained on the preferred bonds to the amount necessary. The party will return to the East to-morrow apparently well satisfied with their trip and fully determined to carry out their new scheme as speedily as possible.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Wallor & Bourke's foundry has made an assignment. The assets are not over $100,000.

An Enthusiastic Reception Accorded the Plumed Knight at Columbus.

Mrs. Logan and John Visit the Fair and the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, Ohio.

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT. AN INFORMAL LEVER.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 3.—All Buffalo is still talking of last night's grand reception. Gov. Cleveland spent the morning quietly at the Genesee house receiving his old-time friends. Many independent Republicans were among his callers. A large number of ladies were presented to him. The city is still thronged with visitors. The governor leaves for Albany on the 11:30 train to-night, arriving at the capital to-morrow morning. An informal reception will be held in the parlors of the Genesee house this afternoon.

HOW OUR CHIEF SPENT THE DAY.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Nearly everybody to-day was talking of the great demonstration of last night in honor of Gov. Cleveland. The weather was beautiful after the storm, and large numbers of visiting clubs remained to pay their respects to Gov. Cleveland. As in his habit he rose early, notwithstanding the fatigue incident to the reception of last night, and after breakfast in his room with his Albany friends he received the first callers at 9:30 a. m. From then to luncheon, which he also took in his room, there was an UNINTERRUPTED STREAM OF VISITORS, including all kinds of people, from the humble workman to the millionaire, each with a pleasant word. Among those who visited the governor were many of his old friends and acquaintances in Buffalo who had known him when he came here poor and without friends, and who had watched his progress in his profession, and who

NOW UNITING IN HONORING HIM.

Very frequently the governor called up reminiscences. He was in excellent spirits. This afternoon the governor drove about visiting his old friends, many of whom he had not seen since his election as governor. The governor was given a dinner at the residence of Mrs. Walter Cary. Justice Field was one of the guests. Bishop Gilmore was among the callers to-day. A pleasant chat was held in which the governor took occasion to respond in an emphatic manner to the charge that he ever influenced members of the legislature regarding the disposition of the freedom of worship bill, so as to relieve the governor from embarrassment in its consideration. Father Cronin will make this statement in the next issue of the "Catholic Layman."

HIS DEPARTURE.

Gov. Cleveland returned from dinner at 1:30 p. m. and made preparations for his departure. A large number of citizens and the Cleveland Legion called on him and bid him God-speed. The governor's departure was quiet, in accordance with his ideas. There was no demonstration. At 11 o'clock the governor drove to the depot with his Albany friends and boarded the Cincinnati express, leaving at 11:30 p. m. Large crowds were at the depot and hearty cheers went up as the train moved out.

THE REPUBLICAN TEAM.

THE MAN FROM MAINE.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, Oct. 2.—Nothing in Mr. Blaine's progress Westward has excited in enthusiasm the demonstration in Columbus and there have been only two or three larger. The crowd in the street when the train arrived was greater than has greeted him at any point reached except one at Rochester. The committee engaged rooms at the Neil house, from which Mr. Blaine went from the depot to the residence of Mr. Henry Miller. He had a formal escort composed of uniformed Republican clubs, but the escort of people who marched on either side of his carriage and behind was very much larger. Opposite the Neil house a small stand had been erected and a large temporary balcony constructed. The people were so densely packed on the street that it seemed impossible to clear a way for the procession. They kept their eyes fixed on the balcony and kept up such a storm of cheers and calls for Blaine that he was finally obliged to appear and make a speech. Gov. Foster, Hon. A. W. Turner and Hon. John Finerty followed with speeches and when the procession reached the Neil house, Mr. Blaine again appeared and was cheered as wildly as before. He reviewed the procession which lasted an hour and a half. In it were several clubs bearing banners with "No free trade in ours;" "Cleveland's headquarters in England;" etc.

After the procession had passed Senator Hale of Maine made a few remarks from the hotel balcony and several speeches were made from other stands.

SEN. LOGAN AND HER DEPARTURE.

DAYTON, OHIO, Oct. 3.—Gen. Logan arrived this morning, leaving Cincinnati on a special train, accompanied by a committee of fifty representative men from Dayton. All along the route they met with an ovation from the
